

```
fake_cube_perception
_node.FakePerceptionNode.
    __init__
```

The image shows a gray rectangular box with a black border containing the text `fake_cube_perception_node.FakePerceptionNode.__init__`. Above the box, a blue curved arrow originates from the right side and points to the `__init__` method, indicating a self-call or initialization process.